

ACRS In-Kind Donations

In-kind donations are another great way donors can directly support the work and services provided by Asian Counseling and Referral Service (ACRS). Thanks to your generosity, in-kind donations supply ACRS clients with warm clothes, healthy foods, and household furnishings among other needs.

While we sincerely appreciate in-kind donations, ACRS has a limited amount of available storage. In order to better serve our clients and meet organizational needs, ACRS has created a wishlist of items needed at this time. All items should be in good condition.
